

This Brass weight is used when you need some more on power steering.
Also if you find the buggy jumps nose high, then the weight can help keep the nose down.
If the track is very bumpy or super high grip and you need some more stability, then the weight can help.
When using Shorty LiPo's the CORE under Lipo weight CR519 can help spread the weight to keep the balance of the buggy.

